June 2016, Edition

Dear Authors and Readers,

It makes me immense happy to announce that we have launched another edition of IJHEPS. This June 2016 edition is named as Sagesse. For this edition, we have received 178 papers out of which, after the review, only 25 made through and finalized for the publication in June 2016 edition.

For this edition, we have received and published papers from authors of the different countries namely Egypt, Malaysia, India, Uzbekistan, and Nigeria. So, far we have published papers from more than ten countries. Papers from top academic and research institutions of India such as IITs, CSIR, NIPER, NPL and Delhi University had already been published in the past few editions. This time the same list has become more diverse. In this edition, papers from IIM, TCS, NIT and BIT etc. have also been published.

All the published papers have undergone stringent double blinded peer review process. I heartily congratulation to all of them whose papers have been passed in this stringent review process and are being published in this edition. Needless to say their hard work paid off.

All the best and keep yourself engage in true research work.

सर्वे भवन्तु: सुखिनः

Yours truly,
