General Notification

This is to inform every author/scholar/researcher & member of IJHEPS family that the amount which is taken as publication fee from the authors by IJHEPS is very nominal. The amount received in form of IJHEPS publication fee is completely spent on website maintenance, updation & data security. Majority of the remaining amount is invested the editing of the received research papers/articles & in its extensive marketing. However, our purpose of marketing is not to earn money but to make this world realize that we exist & strongly exist. A part of income is also spent in organizing various IJHEPS sponsored competitions.

IJHEPS is a non-profit journal. Hence, reviewers & other editorial board members of IJHEPS do not get any amount for their services. They all work for IJHEPS without getting any honorarium from IJHEPS directly or indirectly.

In some sense, like any other good research journal IJHEPS is also an unpaid good quality research journal but since it doesn't have any external source of funding hence we are bound to take some nominal (per paper) publication fee from the author (if his/her research paper/article is selected) to maintenance the balance between its income- expenditure ratio (~1).

We at IJHEPS tried our best to keep publication charges as minimum as possible.

Yours truly,

Manish Yadav

(Group Editor & Managing Head, IJHEPS)
